Thursday Night Lenten Suppers

We begin at 6:00 p.m. with informal table conversation over a simple supper of soup and bread. Our gathering then focuses on the topic, "Call to Covenant" from the Living the Questions Series. Featuring a variety of acclaimed scholars, theologians and other experts, each session utilizes a 20-minute video segment that includes conversations with leading voices of faith, digital stories illustrating aspects of an evolving faith, and concrete spiritual practices and disciplines. Each evening will include group discussion of the video and conclude at approximately 7:30 with the brief service of Compline.

MUSICAL OFFERINGS

Friday, March 3 – 7:30 p.m.

The Handel Choir of Baltimore joins forces with the Choir of St. David's for a special concert of choral music directed by Arian Khaefi and Douglas Buchanan. This concert will emphasize the relationship that forms between local audiences, performers, and composers, resulting in a unique musical community defined and inspired by space and place. Included will be compositions by Marylanders Dale Trumbore, Natalie Draper, Darren Schmidt, and Douglas Buchanan, as well as works by William Averitt, Shawn Crouch, Eric Whitacre, and Paul Crabtree.

Sunday, March 19 – 2:00 – 7:00 p.m.

The 41st Annual Baltimore Bach Marathon celebrates the great maestro with five hours of organ, vocal, and instrumental music. Refreshments are available from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m.

Good Friday, April 14 – 7:30 p.m.

The Choir of St. David's presents a concert-liturgical of Music for Good Friday, featuring John Stainer's God so Loved the World, "Crucifixion" from Symphonie Passion by Marcel Dupré, and the Tenebrae Responsories by Carlo Gesualdo.

Lent

Holy Week

Easter 2017

at Saint David's

Joy, love and renewal are as much Lenten themes as are penitence, fasting and self-denial; and we need to remember that it is within the context of preparation for our participation in the Feast of feasts that the Lenten penitence is expressed. Our penitence is not the penitence of those who have no hope of forgiveness, but of those who have been redeemed by the dying and rising of Jesus the Lord.
