THE FUNERAL SERVICE

✠ The liturgy for the dead is an Easter liturgy. It finds all its meaning in the resurrection. Because Jesus was raised from the dead, we, too, shall be raised. The liturgy, therefore, is characterized by joy, in the certainty that “neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.” This joy, however, does not make human grief unchristian. The very love we have for each other in Christ brings deep sorrow when we are parted by death. Jesus himself wept at the grave of his friend. So, while we rejoice that one we love has entered into the nearer presence of our Lord, we sorrow in sympathy with those who mourn.

The Book of Common Prayer, p. 507

✠ The coffin is to be closed before the service, and it remains closed thereafter. It is appropriate that it be covered with a pall or other suitable covering. The Book of Common Prayer, p. 468

Please note: except in extraordinary circumstances, the Rector or Assistant Rector of St. David’s Church officiates at all liturgies. If other clergy are to be included in the service, that invitation should come after consultation with, and at the invitation of, the clergy of St. David’s Church.

I would prefer using:

_____ Rite I (Prayer Book p. 469) – traditional language, in the style of the 1928 Prayer Book

_____ Rite II (Prayer Book p. 491) – contemporary language

Please refer to the prayer book pages above or the Scripture Resource sheet for the following:

Old Testament Lesson: _____

Psalms: _____

New Testament Lesson: _____

Gospel Lesson: _____

_____ I would like the priest to choose the readings.

✠ Including Holy Communion at the service is often a comfort to many. We share in a foretaste of the heavenly banquet at which the deceased is already feasting. It is a sign of unity and community. In The Episcopal Church, all baptized persons are invited to receive communion. Those choosing not to receive, including those from other faith traditions, are invited to come forward in thanksgiving for the life of the deceased and are given a blessing.

_____ I would like to have Holy Communion as a part of my service.

Please include, if appropriate, the following hymns or sacred music as a part of my service:

Please invite the following persons to participate in my service:
